UM TO PRESENT "CAMELOT"

MISSOULA--

From the time of the Round Table, Excalibur, and King Arthur comes an epic love story, "Camelot," to be presented by the University of Montana Department of Drama/Dance Oct. 13-16, at 8 p.m. in the University Theater.

Directing the Lerner and Loewe musical is Dr. James D. Kriley, chairman of the Drama/Dance Department, along with musical director, Karen Lowney. The production will feature sets by Bill Raoul, costumes by Deborah Lotsof and choreography by Cheryl Hill.

King Arthur (J.D. Ackman) and his bride, Guenevere (Lynn Holding) live in the enchanted kingdom of Camelot. Here Arthur establishes the Round Table and enrolls knights of his kingdom in this chivalric order.

The music is both lively and touching with tunes like "I Wonder What the King is Doing Tonight," "The Lusty Month of May," and the ballad "If Ever I Would Leave You" sung by Sir Lancelot (Steve Zediker). This Arthurian legend (based on T.H. White's "Once and Future King") weaves a spell that enchants audiences of all ages.

Season and individual show tickets are on sale in the University Theater Box Office or call 243-4581.
